1 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on March 7, 2007, USACM filed its Second
2 Amendments to Schedules (Docket No. 3002). These amendments were filed to make the 3 following changes:

- 4 • Schedule E was amended to list the claims of former USACM loan brokers
5 as “disputed” claims where they had previously not been listed as disputed.
- 6 • Schedule F was amended to list certain claims as “disputed” where they had 7 not been listed as disputed.
- 8 • Schedule F-1 was amended to list certain claims as “disputed” and to revise 9 the amounts of many of the unremitted principal claims to match the amounts shown on 10 the Direct Lender monthly investor statements.
- 11 • Schedule F-2 was added to list claims that are based on checks drawn from 12 USACM’s collection account that were returned unpaid to the payees shortly after the date
13 of the bankruptcy filings.

14 On March 20, 2007, USACM filed third amendments to Schedule F-1 (Docket No.
15 3188) to add four claims to Schedule F-1 that were erroneously omitted from the second 16 amendment to schedules. There were no other changes in the third amendment.

17 On May 14, 2007, the Court entered a stipulated order proposed by the USACM
18 Liquidating Trust (the “USACM Trust”), as successor to USACM, ordering that those 19 claimants who were adversely affected by the amendments to the schedules be allowed to 20 file a proof of unsecured claim (or amended proof of unsecured claim, as the case may be).
21 A copy of the stipulated order signed by the Court is attached hereto.

22 If you disagree with the treatment of your claim on the Schedules as amended you 23 may file a proof of unsecured claim (or amended proof of unsecured claim if you have 24 previously filed a proof of claim) within 30 days from the date of service of this notice.
25 The proof of unsecured claim (or amended proof of unsecured claim) must conform
